

Comrade John Bachtell, National Chair, CPUSA

Dear comrades, members of the National Congress, CPUSA

Comradely Greetings

The Egyptian Communist Party wishes success and achievements to the 31st National Convention of the Communist Party USA, which will be held on 21-23 June 2019. We also congratulate you on the centennial anniversary of founding your party, this year.

Our Party emphasizes its waiting with great interest for the results of your national convention and its success in achieving all its work, adopting your new Party Program, and pushing the party to further progress and interaction with the aspirations of the American people to a better life, and the common issues of humanity and aspirations of the peoples of the world to stop imperialist wars, eliminate terrorism, struggle against neo-liberal policies and capitalist brutality, the rise of right-wing fascism and extremism all over the world, and establishment of relations among countries, dominated by the principles of cooperation, mutual respect, justice, equality and non-interference in the affairs of others and commonly addressing the existential threat posed by climate and environmental crises.

All wishes of success to your national convention

With our Comradely Greetings

Cairo, May 7, 2019

Salah Adly, Secretary General
Egyptian Communist Party
